Cluster Dynamics has been selected by Hello Tomorrow as one of Top 500 deeptech startups worldwide in the New Mobility track!

Cluster Dynamics, Inc. (Headquarters: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, Japan, CEO: Hidetoshi Takaoka) has been selected as one of Hello Tomorrow's Top 500 deeptech startups worldwide in the New Mobility track! (www.hello-tomorrow.org/summit)

Hello Tomorrow had a record of over 4,500 applications from 119 countries. Being in the Top 500 means Cluster Dynamics is recognized by Hello Tomorrow as one of the most promising projects in deep tech to date.

We are invited by them to their Investor Day on March 13th, 2019 and to the Hello Tomorrow Global Summit on the 14-15th of March in Paris!

We bring innovation to air and land transportation around world, and will contribute to strengthening Japanese aeronautical, automobile and logistics industry.
